Introducing voice-activated photos

Me-Fie offers photo booth fun without ever touching a screen! You can use intuitive voice commands to start a countdown, keep or retake your photo, and then simply scan a QR code to get it on your phone.

Here's how it works.

Step 1: Say "HELLO" to start the countdown

The app will listen for the key phrase "Hello" and similar phrases like "Halo" to make it easy to activate.

Step 2: Say "Retake" or "Send"

When you preview your photo, you can choose whether or not to keep it or discard it and take another.

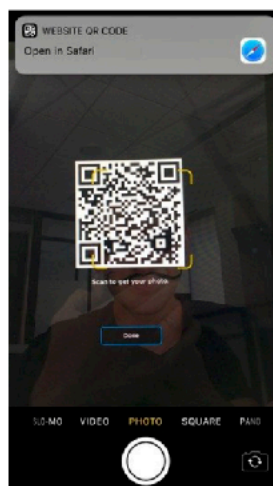

Step 3: Get the photo on your phone

Simply point your iPhone or Android camera app at the QR code on the screen and you'll be prompted to open the web page with your photo on it. It's that easy!

Here's a closer look at what participants will see on their smartphone.

Just scan the QR code to download the image.

From there, you can download or share the photo directly on social media. Voilà! A hands-free photo booth experience that's intuitive and fun to use.
